

REMARKS

The amendment of May 17, 2007 attempted to correct two typographical errors in the specification, thereby rendering the specification consistent with the claims as filed. Regrettably, the amendment created yet another error, which was corrected by the Examiner's amendment of October 1, 2007. The present amendment now makes the original intended correction. No new matter has been added (see Claim 17 as originally filed for support), and no further search or consideration is required.

Respectfully Submitted,
